WRITING

A meeting ?

An old Turtle was living in the river near the forest. In this forest a little young Bear lived. He was very lazy and never do something to end. The old Turtle was very smart and kind.

Once day they met each other. The little Bear was sitting and doing something, when the old Turtle came to him and asked what was he doing, and how long.

He answered that he thinking about his task. He must to bring berries to his mother, but he was very lazy to it and he didn't want to do this task. "I will do it tomorrow, because now I want to sleep," - he said.

The old Turtle look at him and said with smartly face: "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today." But the little Bear didn't listen to her and started sleeping.

Then his mother found him and was very upset that her son was sleeping instead help her. When the little Bear woke up, he noticed that berries was already at home and he was very sorry for his mother.
